Golf Courses near Beautiful Burgh

Rated in the "Top Ten Caravan and Camping Sites for Golf" by the magazine Caravan Life, we are very handily placed for some contrasting coastal and inland courses.

The nearest and newest course is Caldecott Hall at Fritton on the A143, about 3 miles from our Park. Visitors are welcome at all times and there is a driving range as well as an 18 hole and 9 hole course. Golf clubs can be hired for the day.

Gorleston Golf Club's seventh green is the most Easterly in the British Isles. Visitors are welcome at most times but take your handicap certificate. Great Yarmouth and Caister Golf club is the oldest in Norfolk, dating from 1882. A fine seaside links course, the Club welcomes visitors after 10.30 a.m.

Norwich is girdled by six courses, most of them easily accessed from the outer bypass. The Royal Norwich and Barnham Broom Golf Clubs both have excellent parkland courses, the latter being part of a hotel and country club complex boasting two courses and many other leisure facilities. Sprowston Park is also part of a hotel and country club complex on the Eastern side of Norwich.

The nearest courses in Suffolk are The Bungay and Waveney Valley Golf Club and Beccles Golf Club (nine holes). For a more light-hearted pitch and putt, try the 18 hole municipal course in Bure Park, Caister Road, Great Yarmouth or the newer one at Browston Park, just 5 minutes away by car.
